

TELEGRAPH
HILL
OPEN GARDENS
2019

SATURDAY 18TH MAY
10-2PM
&
SUNDAY 19TH MAY
2-6PM

TelegraphHill festival

Entry to the gardens is free. Donations are welcome to fund new trees for Telegraph Hill (via Street Trees for Living). Refreshments & plants will be available in some gardens. No dogs please.

- ✿ SATURDAY 18 MAY 10AM - 2PM & SUNDAY 19 MAY 2PM - 6PM
- ✿ SATURDAY 18 MAY 10AM - 2PM
- ✿ SUNDAY 19 MAY 2PM - 6PM

SATURDAY 18 MAY • 10AM - 2PM & SUNDAY 19 MAY 2PM - 6PM

- 1. Mary Lee
39 Sprules Road, SE4 2NL
More flowers, teapots and fire buckets (+ a sprinkling of table tennis!). Plants and seeds for sale so you can take a piece of the garden away with you.
- 2. Becky & Adrian Reed
72 Bousfield Road, SE14 5TR
L-shaped garden with old & new planting, rose arch, clematis and other climbers. Small pond. Tea and scones for sale!
- 3. Caro Thorp
9 Gellatly Road, SE14 5TU
Entrance on Arbutnot Rd. An established garden with a bit of everything - yard & pot plants, lawn & perennials, fruit & veg patch, sheds.
- 4. Chris Torrible
12 Pepys Road, SE14 5SB
Reasonable sized. Trees, shrubs, plants, grass and stuff. Quite nice if you like that.
- 5. Jethro Holman
132a Erlanger Road, SE14 5TJ
Front garden only: we've tried to fill our small layered space with colour and texture to give us a friendly greeting.
- 6. Rupert Hughes
13A Waller Road, SE14 5LE
A garden full of hardy plants from woodland, hedgerow and meadow.
- 7. Angel McMahon
20 Erlanger Road, SE14 5TG
Urban food garden.
- 8. Anna Whitfield
126 Jerningham Road, SE14
A structured garden with distinct 'rooms', and a private eating area. Watch out for what's in the cabin at the bottom of the garden!
- 9. Bridget & Brian McKenzie
152 Waller Road, SE14 5LU
Climate Museum UK will be installed in the kitchen and garden, opening up your appreciation of this wildlife-friendly garden.
- 10. Shelagh Hornby
37 Kitto Road, SE14 5TW
Long, narrow, north facing garden with mixed planting, including soft fruit and vegetables.
- 11. Rev Sheridan James
The Old Vicarage Garden, Pepys Road, SE14 5SG
A small, secret, wildlife haven with an ecclesiastical vibe, that sits between the church vestry and the Old Vicarage.

SATURDAY 18 MAY • 10AM - 2PM

- 12. Kitty Warnock
30c Arbutnot Road, SE14 5NP
Small garden designed for sitting to enjoy the sun or viewing from the upstairs kitchen window. Different levels and lots of climbers provide visual interest.
- 13. Louise Shepherd
81 Waller Road, SE14 5LB
A garden for sitting in and enjoying a cup of tea, full of flowers, fruit and veg. Plants and cakes for sale.
- 14. New Cross Gate Cutting Nature Reserve (11-2pm)
Vesta Road, SE4
Join us for a casual stroll around the reserve, or make your own pinecone birdfeder or mini-bug-hotel.
- 15. Plant Fair Roadshow (1-4pm)
Telegraph Hill Centre, Kitto Rd, SE14 5TY
Nurseries from South East England bring their high quality plants to sell and their expertise to SE14. Not to be missed!

SUNDAY 19 MAY • 2PM - 6PM

- 16. Jane Rapley
17 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NG
Long established fruit trees, wisteria and weeds ending at the railway embankment. Shady, a few vegetables and a fish pond.
- 17. Chris & Paul Banks
101 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NH
Tranquil long garden with a pond. Mature shrubs and trees, raised vegetable beds. Wildlife friendly.
- 18. Francesca Clarke
55 Gellatly Road, SE14 5TU
Small east facing garden designed as three different areas on two levels, with lawn and perennials borders, raised vegetable beds and a sunny patio area at the back.
- 19. Barbara Scott
83 Gellatly Road, SE14 5TU
My garden is fairly small and contained with many shrubs and pots. In short it's a garden without grass.
- 20. Annie Askew
80 St Mary's Road, SE15 2DU
Small pretty garden with herbaceous borders.
- 21. Hazel Fisher
140 Erlanger Road, SE14 5TJ
Perpetual evolution - informal garden, flowers, shrubs, a may-be lawn and two dogs (who will not be on show!).
- 22. Paul Milnes
The Garden flat, 102 Jerningham Road SE14 5NW
This garden attempts to disrupt the 'corridor' feel of a typical London garden with irregular lines and more planting. A bright red cast-iron garden shed is being re-purposed.
- 23. Tatiana Baskakova & Arthur Swindells
58B Pepys Road, SE14 5SD
Site specific ceramic tree jewellery installation on two mature figs. Complemented by what food and flowers are viable under the constraint of a possible short tenure.
- 24. Candace Piette
114 Dennetts Road, SE14 5LW
A secluded garden leading to a garden shack/chill place.
- 25. Common Growth
Sandbourne Road, SE4 2NP
Common Growth is an amazing community garden run by volunteers with mature perennial beds in sun and shade, a herb 'spiral', food growing in raised beds, two tiered ponds.
- 26. Jeremy Palmer
30 Waller Road, SE14 5LA
Informal garden majoring in shrubs and climbers with some herbs, exotics and fruit trees.
- 27. Augusta Quinney & Peter Challis
20 Pepys Road, SE14 5SB
First timers, dazzled by #urban #contemporary #landscaping on pinterest, more ambition than experience, what could go wrong?
- 28. Phaedra McIntyre
Basement Flat, 30 Pepys Rd, SE14 5SB
The Secret Garden - shade and the fight for light. The struggle to find the right plants for a garden surrounded by a canopy of trees.
- 29. Mark & Carolina Howarth
89A Erlanger Road, SE14 5TQ
Our garden is a beginners work in progress. Recently landscaped from the original urban jungle to make the best use of the natural slope, with decking, lawn and raised sleeper beds.
- 30. Sue & Andrew Stone
63 Pepys Road, SE14 5SE
A family garden with bountiful roses, wisteria, a swing seat and a surprise for train lovers at the end of the garden!
- 31. Beth Hayward
29 Ommaney Road, SE14 5NS
The garden of my alter ego, the Victorian archaeologist Edith Fraser-Lloyd "a snapper up of ill considered trifles". Her treasures are scattered amongst terraces.